

HIV/AIDS AND THE MEDIA PROJECT

PROGRAMME:

How healthy is our news?

The state of health reporting in South Africa

Thursday 22 October 2009
16h30 – 18h30

REGISTRATION: 16h00

16h30–16h40	10 mins	Welcome	Sue Valentine
16h40–17h00	20 mins	Opening remarks: Man-boobs and internal testes: a doctor's remarks on South African health reporting.	Dr. Sindisiwe van Zyl, ANOVA Health Institute
17h00–17h20	20 mins	Presentation: HIV in the media: Trends in South African print media coverage (2002-2008)	Catherine Duncan, Wits University
17h20–18h30	1h15 mins	Panel Discussion: facilitated by Sue Valentine	Kanya Ndaki, IRIN Plus News Mia Malan, Mail&Guardian Kristin Palitza, Freelance Journalist
18h30→		Drinks and snacks will be served afterwards

Venue: Tapestry Room
Origins Centre
University of the Witwatersrand
1 Jan Smuts Ave
Parktown

Contact: Natalie Ridgard
Melissa Meyer
(011) 715 5828 (tel)
meyer@anovahealth.co.za (email)

Lindiwe Tshabalala
(082) 522 9922 (cell)
mediaproject@anovahealth.co.za (email)

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

JOHNS HOPKINS
Health and Education in South Africa